i know you think its funny and all, but please remove the picture of the child from your site. that is not right having that girls face on a site like yours.

Are you:

1. The seller of the item?
2. Legal guardian of the girl shown in the photos?
3. Owner of the photos?

i am not related to them in any way.

i would like to point out that posting those images is copy copyright infringement.

i have sent an email to the seller to let her know about the posting.

also i just read your comments on the posting. i know she has a lot of photo effects that she uses on her images. just because you havent seen that brush set doesnt make her a liar.
